Trunk Show Requirements

1. The dresses will be displayed in the shop until _____.
During this time, The Supplier may recall any of the dresses at any time and if The Shop does not return within 7 days of the recall, the dress will be considered sold and invoiced at wholesale price.
2. The dresses shall remain property of The Supplier at all times and The Shop shall take all reasonable care and bona fide efforts to display and sell each dress as required by The Supplier.
3. International freight will be paid by The Supplier, The Shop shall pay for the shipping / insurance of the dresses back to The Supplier's UK logistics' shipping agent. Contact & info in attached page.
4. The Shop will not sub-let the dresses, nor allow the designs, artwork or details to be copied or used in any way without The Supplier's written authorization.

Please do take note that our Trunk show styles, being the most popular styles have been on the road booked non-stop so they may not in pristine condition as such our effort to send early will allow time to prep and condition them up well before each show and if any serious faults found , there is time for alternative.*
